2019 Clinical Trial Row

Application Deadline: July 13, 2019

Clinical Trial Row provides a designated research focus in the Exhibit Hall. It consists of poster boards providing information about:

1. Trial in the recruitment or follow-up phase.
2. How to get involved in company-supported research.

Location

Information should be placed on 4x8 foot poster board in a dedicated area in the Exhibit Hall in the Gaylord Convention Center. Posters can include a pocket with informational brochures.

Examples of information included on the poster board:

- How to become a center
- Inclusion/exclusion criteria
- List of centers participating
- Name of trial
- Payments to centers
- Protocols
- Recruitment dates
- Reporting requirements
- Source of financial support
- Sponsor
- Statistical power
- Trial design
- How to become involved in company-based research

Boards may be staffed at any time during regular Exhibit Hall hours to answer questions. There will be required days and times that posters must be staffed. The schedule will be available in the exhibitor prospectus.

Publicity

- All Clinical Trial Row posters received by the deadline will be listed in the Annual Meeting Final program book.
- Clinical Trial Row information will be included in Email announcements to pre-registrants regarding exhibit hall activities.
- Clinical Trial Row information will be included in all conference attendee bags.
- All Clinical Trial Row posters will be displayed on the HFSA website following the Annual Meeting.

Cost:

- Industry Submissions: $950
- Non-Profit Submissions: $500
- NIH Funded Submissions: Complimentary

All other rules for exhibiting apply. Payment must be received by July 13, 2019 to have submissions included in the HFSA Annual Scientific Meeting program and posted on the exhibit hall floor. If you have questions, please contact Kelly Szczotka at kelly@gmimeetings.com. If interested, please complete this form and return it to kelly@gmimeetings.com. You will be invoiced for payment.
